

OUR NOTTO.

Were half the power that fills the world with terror,
Were half the wisdom that directs the course of nations,
Given to the weak, the timid, the ungodly,
The world would be a better place than this.
The warrior's name would be a name of shame,
And every nation would be a nation of peace.
Should we have the power to do this?
Should we have the wisdom to do this?
—Joseph Smith.

Republican Convention of the 33d Senatorial District.

The Republicans of the Thirty-third Senatorial District, comprising the counties of Adams, Putnam, Wood, Lucas, Henry and Fulton, are requested to select delegates to attend the National Convention, to be held at the City of Toledo, Ohio, on the 15th day of September, 1870, at 2 P. M., for the purpose of nominating one member of the State Board of Education.

"THE SITUATION."

The success which has attended the German armies—from the moment they entered France, till the surrender a few days ago—has been regarded in history, and the nations of the world—even those most skilled in the arts of war—are filled with wonder at the spectacle now held up to their view.

The President of the Nation on earth—and, as supposed, by America, the most powerful in Europe—hurled from his lofty position into an abyss of abjection by a despised but persevering foe, within less than two months after the declaration of war!

When the Emperor—in all the pride and arrogance of untried power—declared war against Prussia, he won for himself and the French Nation, the most stupendous "elephant" of modern times; and one important result, est la cause de la guerre.

History will make it apparent that France should charge her defeat to the superior statesmanship of Bismarck, the superior generalship of the Prussian leaders, and the loss of civil and religious liberty which has attended the Prussian Monarchy, from the beginning of the bloody struggle to the present time.

What the end will be—now that Republicanism, instead of Imperial France, takes the sword—more precisely, and precisely nobody, can tell; but we are sure of one thing, there will not be much fighting about the walls of Paris, for there are Frenchmen within the city with enough military foresight to recognize the correctness of this plain proposition: No city or fortress, however strong and well provided, can afford to stand the siege of a powerful and victorious army, unless the city or fortress is besieged has a well-grounded hope of being able to put an effective fighting army in the field.

ADVANCE IN MATERIAL WEALTH.

The recensus made to the County Auditor of the amount of the value of lands and buildings in Wood county is highly significant of the increasing value of its lands and the rapidly developing wealth of its citizens.

Low as the appraisement is known to be, yet it exhibits an aggregate increase of about 170 per cent. over the appraisement of 1860. When it is considered that these increased values have been secured by an extraordinary outlay of labor and of money expended in the formation of ditches and the establishment of roads—by which means alone a large portion of the soil has been made productive—it will be seen that a broad foundation has been laid for the development of our resources on a much larger scale during the ensuing decade.

We have not yet received the statement of the amount of personal wealth, nor aggregate results of the census as far as the population, but we may safely estimate that the taxable property of the county at $8,000,000, and the population will probably be in the neighborhood of 25,000.

Should such premises prove correct, Wood county will then exhibit a prosperous advance, during the past ten years, of over 100 per cent in the aggregate of its wealth, and an increase of 40 per cent, in population.
